development and implementation, corporate governance, intellectual property rights registration, protection, and enforcement, and matters related to share capital and other distributions.

The firm's customer-centric approach has garnered positive feedback from clients across various industries and categories.

Throughout his journey, Mr Khetan has encountered and overcome numerous challenges, guided by his steadfast belief in persisting until goals are achieved. His favourite saying, 'Jab tak jeevan hai, tab tak sangharsh hai' (As long as there is life, there is struggle), reflects his unwavering determination towards personal and professional growth in all aspects of life.

Mr Khetan advocates for change in the industry, emphasising the need for a clear pathway to resolve cases and promoting an entrepreneurial mindset among young professionals. He also recommends establishing a framework to manage digital competition and bringing fuel and energy costs under the ambit of Goods and Services Tax (GST), while abolishing state-level taxes.

At the core of Mr Khetan's leadership style is a focus on responsibility and sustainability. He often says, "The road to success must be paved by a certain sense of responsibility and sustainability" and "It's imperative to encourage value creation across all levels." Both these beliefs exemplify his commitment to creating value for all stakeholders.

AUCL consistently delivers practical solutions to complex challenges, ensuring the success of its clients' endeavours, making it a great choice for increased profitability.
